

TAKE EASTLAKE TO FREDERICKSBURG TO THWART MOB

Commonwealth's Attorney Halts Armed Men Moving Toward Montross.

FEELING IS HIGH OVER COLONIAL BEACH CRIME

Men and Women Gather on Streets and Lynching Threats Are Made.

JEALOUSY POSSIBLE MOTIVE

State Will Endeavor to Prove Miss Knox Plotted Mrs. Eastlake's Murder.

(By United News.)

COLONIAL BEACH, Va., Oct. 2.—Roger D. Eastlake, and Miss Sarah E. Knox, accused of the murder of Eastlake's wife, were quietly moved to the jail at Fredericksburg, Va., late today, for fear of possible mob violence.

Intervention by W. T. Mayo, Commonwealth's Attorney, earlier today halted a mob of 250 armed men which was moving toward Montross with the expressed intention of lynching Roger D. Eastlake and Miss Sarah E. Knox.

Eastlake and Miss Knox were in jail at Montross, charged with having brutally murdered Eastlake's wife.

Mayo overtook the mob after it had started toward Montross and pleaded with it to disperse. He pointed out that the sheriff of Montross and citizens, and he himself, would defend the jail to the last. After consultation, the mob disbanded.

Feeling ran high throughout this region when the coroner's jury held the two on a charge of murder. They were accused of having hacked the victim with a hatchet, stabbing her, and shooting her. Men and women collected on the streets, and threats of lynching were made. The prisoners were moved to Montross as a result of this.

Mayo said the State will endeavor to prove at the trial that Miss Knox was jealous of Mrs. Eastlake, and had plotted her murder.

Ship Body to Pennsylvania.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WAUSAU, Va., Oct. 2.—The body of Mrs. R. N. Eastlake, who was murdered at Colonial Beach early Friday morning, was shipped to Mt. Airy, Pa., today, where it will be buried.

The feeling against Eastlake and Miss Sarah Knox, who have been confined in the Montross, Westmoreland County jail, charged with the murder of Mrs. Eastlake, has been growing stronger in the neighborhood of Colonial Beach and open threats of lynching were made against the prisoners. A mob could have been easily formed, had there been no intervention.

The jail was guarded during the early hours of the night and the prisoners were removed this morning and taken by automobile to Fredericksburg, where they were committed to jail by Sheriff Griffith. The jail at Montross was considered unsafe against the attack of the mob.

A letter was found on the person of Miss Knox, which was signed by the person for the crime, the belief of the prosecution and which links Eastlake and Miss Knox together in the committing of the same. It developed that a 32-caliber revolver was found in the hands of Miss Knox, which shows that it had been washed, but had blood spots on it, also pieces of hair of the dead woman. It is the belief that Miss Knox struck Mrs. Eastlake on the head with the revolver and the sharp instruments were then used to butcher her up.

Colonial Beach is filled with newspaper reporters, who are providing their respective papers with a lot of sensational reading matter growing out of the murder, which is one of the most brutal on record in this State.

WITNESS IN MURDER CASE DISAPPEARS

California Woman Subpoenaed to Testify Against Alleged Slayer of Colima Priest.

(By Associated Press.)
REDWOOD CITY, CAL., Oct. 2.—Disappearance of Marie Blanchi, star witness against William Hightower, whose trial on the charge of murdering the Rev. Patrick Healy, priest of Colima, Cal., opens tomorrow, has somewhat handicapped the State's case, it was announced today.

The authorities have hopes she will be found.

Miss Blanchi said she saw a man identified as Hightower call the priest from his home on the night of the murder. The priest was later found buried in a sand grave. Fifty witnesses have been subpoenaed.

Gives Bible to Arms Meet.

NEW YORK, Oct. 2.—The New York Bible Society tonight announced the gift of a Bible to the conference on the limitation of armament, which, it says, President Harding has agreed to accept. The Bible, bound in Morocco, is dedicated to the promotion of good-will among the nations.

Confederate Veterans Dies.

DECATUR, TENN., Oct. 2.—Captain John D. Blevins, aged 83, an officer in General Joe Weyler's Confederate cavalry and participant in the battle of the Clouds, died at his home here this morning. Following the Civil War Captain Blevins retired to his farm, near here, where he lived until his death.

PERSHING DECORATES FRANCE'S UNKNOWN DEAD WITH MEDAL OF HONOR

American Commander, at Tomb Near Arch of Triumph, Comes Back to Hearts of All Frenchmen as at Tomb of Lafayette.

(By Hudson Hawley.)

PARIS, Oct. 2.—In the brief moment when, with trembling hands, General John J. Pershing, extracted from his pocket the Congressional Medal of Honor and pinned it above the tomb of France's unknown soldier at the Arch of Triumph, the American commander came back to the hearts of all Frenchmen as he came to them once before at the tomb of La Fayette.

The ceremony was one of the most moving ever witnessed in this city of emotion. As General Pershing stepped back and saluted, the President of the republic moved forward, and in a choking voice thanked him in the name of the French people.

"Plays 'Star-Spangled Banner'." The Rhine headquarters band burst into the strains of the "Marseillaise," and a moment later the famous Garde Republicaine followed the French national anthem with the "Star-Spangled Banner."

Four marshals of France stood by Pershing as he paid his tribute to the heroism and an observer blindingly perceived at the significance of the simple ritual while the American leader presented the medal "in testimony of the everlasting faith and justice of our cause, for which you died."

All along the line of the great procession—the most imposing parade since the colonial celebration of the Napoleon centenary last summer—the picked battalions of American doughboys from the Rhine, swinging magnificently through the streets, brought applause and exclamations of wonder from the crowded sidewalks.

All eyes were turned to the "Star-Spangled Banner" which was being played by a band of more than six feet tall—their appearance and their precision of movement might well have been French officers. "If Pershing is not pleased, he doesn't know good troops when he sees them," they said.

Feeling ran high throughout this region when the coroner's jury held the two on a charge of murder. They were accused of having hacked the victim with a hatchet, stabbing her, and shooting her. Men and women collected on the streets, and threats of lynching were made. The prisoners were moved to Montross as a result of this.

Mayo overtook the mob after it had started toward Montross and pleaded with it to disperse. He pointed out that the sheriff of Montross and citizens, and he himself, would defend the jail to the last. After consultation, the mob disbanded.

Feeling ran high throughout this region when the coroner's jury held the two on a charge of murder. They were accused of having hacked the victim with a hatchet, stabbing her, and shooting her. Men and women collected on the streets, and threats of lynching were made. The prisoners were moved to Montross as a result of this.

Mayo said the State will endeavor to prove at the trial that Miss Knox was jealous of Mrs. Eastlake, and had plotted her murder.

Ship Body to Pennsylvania.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WAUSAU, Va., Oct. 2.—The body of Mrs. R. N. Eastlake, who was murdered at Colonial Beach early Friday morning, was shipped to Mt. Airy, Pa., today, where it will be buried.

The feeling against Eastlake and Miss Sarah Knox, who have been confined in the Montross, Westmoreland County jail, charged with the murder of Mrs. Eastlake, has been growing stronger in the neighborhood of Colonial Beach and open threats of lynching were made against the prisoners. A mob could have been easily formed, had there been no intervention.

The jail was guarded during the early hours of the night and the prisoners were removed this morning and taken by automobile to Fredericksburg, where they were committed to jail by Sheriff Griffith. The jail at Montross was considered unsafe against the attack of the mob.

A letter was found on the person of Miss Knox, which was signed by the person for the crime, the belief of the prosecution and which links Eastlake and Miss Knox together in the committing of the same. It developed that a 32-caliber revolver was found in the hands of Miss Knox, which shows that it had been washed, but had blood spots on it, also pieces of hair of the dead woman. It is the belief that Miss Knox struck Mrs. Eastlake on the head with the revolver and the sharp instruments were then used to butcher her up.

Colonial Beach is filled with newspaper reporters, who are providing their respective papers with a lot of sensational reading matter growing out of the murder, which is one of the most brutal on record in this State.

Witness in murder case disappears.

California woman subpoenaed to testify against alleged slayer of Colima priest.

(By Associated Press.)
Redwood City, Cal., Oct. 2.—Disappearance of Marie Blanchi, star witness against William Hightower, whose trial on the charge of murdering the Rev. Patrick Healy, priest of Colima, Cal., opens tomorrow, has somewhat handicapped the State's case, it was announced today.

The authorities have hopes she will be found.

Miss Blanchi said she saw a man identified as Hightower call the priest from his home on the night of the murder. The priest was later found buried in a sand grave. Fifty witnesses have been subpoenaed.

Gives Bible to arms meet.

New York Bible Society tonight announced the gift of a Bible to the conference on the limitation of armament, which, it says, President Harding has agreed to accept. The Bible, bound in Morocco, is dedicated to the promotion of good-will among the nations.

Confederate veteran dies.

Decatur, Tenn., Oct. 2.—Captain John D. Blevins, aged 83, an officer in General Joe Weyler's Confederate cavalry and participant in the battle of the Clouds, died at his home here this morning. Following the Civil War Captain Blevins retired to his farm, near here, where he lived until his death.

Pershing decorates France's unknown dead with medal of honor.

American commander, at tomb near arch of triumph, comes back to hearts of all Frenchmen as at tomb of Lafayette.

(By Hudson Hawley.)

Paris, Oct. 2.—In the brief moment when, with trembling hands, General John J. Pershing, extracted from his pocket the Congressional Medal of Honor and pinned it above the tomb of France's unknown soldier at the Arch of Triumph, the American commander came back to the hearts of all Frenchmen as he came to them once before at the tomb of La Fayette.

The ceremony was one of the most moving ever witnessed in this city of emotion. As General Pershing stepped back and saluted, the President of the republic moved forward, and in a choking voice thanked him in the name of the French people.

STATE FAIR OFFERS NEW ATTRACTIONS TO CROWDS TODAY

Midway Shows and Hundreds of Additional Exhibits Here.

PRIZE-WINNING STOCK AMONG LATE ARRIVALS

Ribbons Awarded Children Securing High Scores in Physical Perfection.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Study of the economic factors responsible for recurring business depression with consequent variation in the numbers of workers is to be undertaken this week by the subcommittee of national conference on unemployment in an effort to arrive at a permanent policy for the prevention of involuntary idleness.

The full conference is to convene October 10 to receive reports of its committees' deliberations and to frame the general program for permanent economic and employment stabilization. As a starting point for their investigations the committee have before them a comprehensive set of suggestions prepared by the economic advisory committee of the conference, composed of expert economists from different sections of the country.

Permanent preventive measures against unemployment suggested by the advisory committee include, in broad terms, compilation of essential information, long range planning of public works, mitigation of seasonal irregularities of employment, permanent betterment of cyclical unemployment and unemployment and depression insurance.

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

SEEK TO ARRIVE AT PERMANENT POLICY TO STOP IDLENESS

Subcommittee of Conference on Unemployment Studies Factors.

WILL FRAME GENERAL PROGRAM ON OCT. 10

Will Urge Passage of Permanent Measures to Aid Laborers in Securing Work.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Study of the economic factors responsible for recurring business depression with consequent variation in the numbers of workers is to be undertaken this week by the subcommittee of national conference on unemployment in an effort to arrive at a permanent policy for the prevention of involuntary idleness.

The full conference is to convene October 10 to receive reports of its committees' deliberations and to frame the general program for permanent economic and employment stabilization. As a starting point for their investigations the committee have before them a comprehensive set of suggestions prepared by the economic advisory committee of the conference, composed of expert economists from different sections of the country.

Permanent preventive measures against unemployment suggested by the advisory committee include, in broad terms, compilation of essential information, long range planning of public works, mitigation of seasonal irregularities of employment, permanent betterment of cyclical unemployment and unemployment and depression insurance.

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

PLANE LANDS IN TREE AT CHARLOTTESVILLE; PILOT ESCAPES DEATH

Night Bomber Becomes Separated From Squad on Return to Quantico Base.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., Oct. 2.—Captain J. E. Davis, of the United States Marine Corps, in charge of one of the airplanes which engaged in the demonstration of night bombing on the historic Wilderness battlefield, became separated from the squad of flyers on their return to the Quantico base last night and, losing his way in the darkness, flew sixty miles out of his course and was compelled to make a forced landing here.

The plane, with its supply of gasoline exhausted, landed about midnight in the top of an oak tree within the city limits. Strains to release Captain Davis escaped death, suffering only slight bruises. The crash could be heard blocks away, and those near by heard the aviator utter a groan. The first to reach the scene found Davis picking his way out of the tangled wires and a moment later saw him descend from the forty-foot perch in the tree top.

The machine, a Model K, is not a total wreck. The end of the propeller is broken, the landing gear is gone, but the motor appears to be only slightly damaged. The wings are in good shape. Captain Davis stated that he left the battlefield at 9 o'clock. After a two hours' ride in the darkness he reached this city, and for nearly a half-hour circled back and forth over the city and suburbs in an effort to find a suitable landing place. He sent out rockets and fired his pistol in order to attract attention. When he did descend he barely grazed a near-by building.

The airplane is safely resting in the top of the tree, waiting a wrecking crew from the Quantico flying station. Thousands visited the scene today to get a glimpse of the odd sight.

Several suggestions offered.

Permanent preventive measures against unemployment suggested by the advisory committee include, in broad terms, compilation of essential information, long range planning of public works, mitigation of seasonal irregularities of employment, permanent betterment of cyclical unemployment and unemployment and depression insurance.

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."

(Continued on Page 2, Col. 2.)

Under these heads the suggestions cover practically the entire economic problem of the nation, considering the various factors of prices, freight rates, foreign trade, production and consumption and the position of the Federal government during recurrent depressions. Volume of employment, education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"Bankers will need even more real courage at that point than during the discouragement of depression. We must cease the meaningless use of the word 'pessimist' and certainly education on cycles will do its best service," the advisory committee report said, "Congress will be tempted to inflationist measures."

"The present surplus of gold, whose corrective international flow is checked for some years to come, offers a peculiar temptation to a false boom which would set us back in inflation."